Timescale

All applications are processed within fifteen working days. Express passports will be processed within five working days. Before applying for a passport please ensure that you read and fully understand your legal responsibilities and the procedure for submitting applications. If you do not complete the paperwork correctly or send payment, there will be delays in your paperwork being processed.

Fifteen working days turnaround starts from the date that all the paperwork in the office is correct and paid for.

Terms and Conditions

- Please note that we can only process applications that are submitted with completed and correct paperwork, and with the correct fees paid.
- Applications cannot be processed if the veterinarian assessment was completed over six months.
- The IMHPS cannot accept application forms from any other organisation, and such paperwork will not be processed and will be returned to the sender.
- It is an offence to apply for a new passport when one already exists for the horse.
- It is an offence to complete the sections of the application that are intended for the veterinarian.
- If your horse's application form is received outside of the statutory time limit, your passport must be produced as a replacement and Section IX Part II (or Section II Part II for passports issued from 1 January 2016) will be signed by an IMHPS representative to declare the horse is not intended for human consumption.
- The IMHPS cannot be held responsible for any passports that are lost or damaged in the post.
- Please note if you send in an incomplete application or a passport without a covering note we will attempt to contact you to request the supporting documentation or payment up to a period of six months. If we have not received the additional paperwork/payment from you within that time we will destroy any documentation already received in order to comply with GDPR.
- You do not have to be a member of the IMHPS to obtain a passport or to complete any updates on an IMHPS passport.
